

DAUGHTER WITNESS IN MAYO BIGAMY CASE

New York, May 4.—Testimony was introduced today at the resumption of the trial of Virginia St. Julian Mayo, New Haven manufacturer, on a charge of bigamy, in support of Mayo's contention that his marriage to Miss Myer, in 1904, which is the basis of the present prosecution, was merely one of convenience and that Miss Myer knew throughout the time of her life together of the existence of Mrs. Florence Weeks Mayo.

The witnesses called by the defense were Mrs. Virginia Mayo Kerr, the daughter of Mayo's first wife, who died; and Miss Elvira Kresting, maid at Mayo's Brooklyn home from 1912 to 1917.

Mrs. Kerr testified that she visited her father frequently during the time he was living with Miss Myer as Mrs. Mayo, and said that Miss Myer frequently discussed Mrs. Florence Weeks Mayo, testifying as to one particular incident. Mrs. Kerr said that shortly after the alleged marriage in 1904, Miss Myer had raised the question as to who was to share in Mayo's estate in the event of his death. Mrs. Kerr testified that Miss Myer expressed a willingness to share with her, but objected to any participation in the estate by Mrs. Florence Weeks Mayo or her three children.

In his cross-examination of Mrs. Kerr, Assistant District Attorney Winter asked, "You're here to help your father, aren't you?"

"Naturally, I am," she replied.

Miss Kresting testified that on a number of occasions while she was employed by Miss Myer, the latter spoke complainingly of "that other woman and her three children." She said Miss Myer never called the former Mrs. Mayo by name, but referred to her always as "the other woman."

Mr. Mayo, according to his counsel, will testify at the continuation of the trial tomorrow.

Weak and Run-down After Serious Operation Wincarnis Restores Her Strength

"Not long ago my daughter, a girl of seventeen, was obliged to undergo a serious operation at Bellevue Hospital, which left her in a dreadfully weak and run-down condition. She had no appetite and was as white as a sheet. She really looked as if she had no blood left in her. She was also very nervous.

The doctor had given her some medicine to build her up and, while it doubtless did her some good, still she did not seem able to get her strength back. In fact, her improvement was so slow that it had me mighty worried.

I happened to hear about Wincarnis and what it had done for others, so I got a bottle and started her on it. It worked wonders on her. She began to improve right from the start. It was simply wonderful to see how quickly she regained her strength and put on weight, and how the color came back to her cheeks.

Wincarnis has certainly proved a God-send for my daughter and I strongly recommend it for run-down persons who want to get back their strength."

A PIANO FOR MOTHER

The home is known by the music it keeps—the family is known by its culture in the way of proper accomplishments. All the world recognizes that a love and appreciation of good music is a refining, beneficial influence in the home.

Music is no longer considered a luxury, to be enjoyed by a few of the envy of many. Music is now looked upon as an essential of life, as important as food and shelter. It is the finishing touch to the perfect home; the refuge for relaxation to the father; THE ONE COMPLETE HOME RECREATION FOR THE MOTHER; a source of education to the children. The character and quality of the instruments that make up the stock here are such as immediately inspire confidence in the minds of the prospective purchaser. The famous Chickering—known as the oldest piano in America, and the best in the world leads the list, followed by such renowned makes, as HAINES BROTHERS, WASSERMANN, CRAWFORD, BEHR BROTHERS, HALLET & DAVIS, AUTOPIANO, LEXINGTON, and many other standard makes—and you can buy any of these Pianos at your own terms—within reason, of course.
